You are kindly and personally invited by the co-hosts of D.I.C.E. at the University of Wisconsin-Stout to attend the campus for our 1st Diversity and Intersectionality Conference Experience (D.I.C.E) in Menomonie, Wisconsin. It will take place on March 9th from 8 AM – 5 PM and will be held in the Memorial Student Center, Ballrooms on campus. This event has to cost to attend.

D.I.C.E's purpose is to bring awareness of racism, sexism, classism and heterosexism on campuses. The theme that we intend to do focus on is intersectionality across a range of marginalized communities.

Proceedings will start with opening remarks from the President of Latinos Unidos, Alejandra Bustos. Throughout the remainder of the conference, there will be a keynote speaker, workshops related to ideas on systems of oppression, identity as a POC, the intercultural development continuum, contemporary views on physical disabilities and mental illnesses and a student-led panel on gender and sexuality. Lunch will be provided from 12 PM – 1 PM.

We believe that your participation at the Conference will be a significant part of our program.

If you do accept this request and have any further questions, comments, and/or concerns, we would be glad to schedule a time to discuss this in greater detail with you. Please contact Alejandra Bustos at bustos-megiaa6877@my.uwstout.edu or 320-405-7049 if you have any questions. We would like a RSVP by Thursday, February 7th, 2019.
