Article I. PURPOSE

The bylaws are established in order to provide clarification and description of the organizational structure, responsibilities, and procedures of the University Student Senate of the Stout Student Association, hereinafter referred to as the U.S.S or the S.S.A. It is the intent that the bylaws govern all branches of the S.S.A.

Article II. REPRESENTATION

Section 2.01 Special Provisions

- A. At least one member of the Executive Board Committee, hereinafter referred to as the E.B.C. or a designated delegate must be present on campus throughout the calendar year. This representative shall act as the official spokesperson of the S.S.A.
  - a. This delegate shall make provisions with the President of the S.S.A. for their official representation if they must leave campus for a period of more than one week.
  - b. Two Summer Representatives will be appointed by the end of the Spring Semester to serve for the duration of the summer term. Two Winter Representatives will be appointed by the end of the Fall Semester to serve over the winter term. Refer to Article IX to review position qualifications and descriptions.

Article III. LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

Section 3.01 Purpose

- A. To provide representation for students' principles, desires, and interests.
- B. To provide representation with an opportunity to learn governmental procedures where the responsibility is vested in the students.

- C. To develop a system which will delegate responsibility among its members and ensure that the S.S.A. remains one government.

Section 3.02 Meetings

The U.S.S. shall meet weekly on Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m. All meetings shall be made public a minimum of 24 hours in advance with the agenda posted for all to view. Special meetings shall be called on an as needed basis as outlined in S.S.A. Statute 3.03.B.

Part A. Agenda

- II. The order of business shall be as follows:
  - a. The Pledge of Allegiance (Appendix 1)
  - b. Acknowledgment of and Welcome to Country (Appendix 2)
  - c. Roll Call
  - d. Standing Committee Roll Call
  - e. Words of Wisdom
  - f. Open Forum
  - g. Unfinished Business
  - h. New Business
  - i. Reports
    - i Executive Board
    - ii Standing Committee
    - iii Senator
    - iv College
    - v Shared Governance
    - vi Other
  - j. Announcements
  - k. Adjourn
- III. The Written Agenda
  - a. All new and unfinished business items shall be written out in a fashion that details exactly what the item portrays.
    - i. The name of the item of business shall not suffice to be enough for the agenda, but rather a description of the motion shall be included.
      - 1. The purpose of this is to better inform the public on the item of business prior to the meeting.

Part B. Attachments

- I. In the event that an attachment is necessary for a business item or an open forum, the following procedures shall be followed:
  - a. The agenda shall have the word attachment written in parenthesis for the open forum or business item.

- b. All attachments will be posted in an “Agenda Attachments” file in the same location the agendas are posted for the public.
  - i. When posting, all attachment files shall have the representative agenda item number followed by “att.” and a succeeding number representing how many attachments are for the particular agenda item.

Part C. Electronic Devices

- I. Use of electronic devices shall be prohibited during all U.S.S. meetings except for the following conditions:
  - a. The minute taker shall have a device to record the minutes.
  - b. A device may be used to present the agenda item to all attendees.
  - c. A presenter may use a device to present prudent information.
  - d. If the device is a laptop, it may be used to view meeting material, take notes, or retrieve information relevant to the meeting.
  - e. In the event that the president approves the individual to use an electric device.
- II. If a member of the U.S.S. is found to be using an electronic device for reasons other than those allowed, the individual shall first receive a verbal warning. If the individual is found to be noncompliant with the policy yet again, a written warning shall be sent to them regarding the incident (an email shall suffice). All incidents following a written warning will result in half a point towards an unexcused absence.

Section 3.03 Attendance

Absence from self or pre-designated obligations, including but not limited to: senate meetings, caucus, standing or sub-standing committee meetings, or shared governance meetings shall fall under the classification of one of two absences: excused or unexcused.

- A. The Director of Communications of the S.S.A. shall notify any member of the U.S.S. who has two unexcused absences by email within two days after obtaining the second unexcused absence. A copy of this email must also be given to the president.
- B. Members shall be eliminated from the U.S.S. upon obtaining three unexcused absences in any semester at the discretion of the President.
- C. An absence from meetings shall be defined as not being present at the initial roll call or any roll call thereafter. If a member of the U.S.S. is absent at the initial roll call and does not attend the rest of the meeting; the maximum number of absences that member may obtain is one for that meeting.
- D. Upon receiving three excused absences, all other “excused” absences will count towards the two unexcused absences allowed.
- E. Any absence which occurs because of U.S.S. business, and can so document the necessity of the business, will be excused without penalty.
- F. All absences will count towards one excused or unexcused absence.
- G. In the instance where both Caucus and a Senate meeting is missed, whether excused or unexcused, it shall be classified accordingly and be counted as a total of one absence.

- H. Attendance for shared governance meetings shall be recorded through a written report submitted to the Director of Communications.

Part A. Excused Absences

- I. Absences where the representative has notified the Director of Communication a minimum of 24 hours in advance of the absence.
- II. If someone has been overcome with an illness or family/personal emergency and has notification of absence to the Director of Communications or a member of the executive branch.
- III. Upon the discretion of the officers of the S.S.A.
