

The University of Wisconsin- Stout Student Construction Association (SCA) will be hosting an in-person contractor presentation for the mechanical contractor Ahern. Ahern will have representatives on campus to present to students about their company. They will be presenting in Applied Arts 210, a spacious environment where social distancing will be practiced. Additionally, all members attending the presentation and the representatives from Ahern will wear masks.

Thank you,

Luke Lundgren

SCA Safety Director